Inventory Management – Too Much vs Not Enough

#DoDifferent

- Very clear Commercial strategy that is working.
- Up 29% YOY.
- Changed planning structure.
- Collaboration and focus increased significantly.
- Dramatically increased safety stock position.
- AMZ exclusive strategy.
- Added visibility within Exec S&OP.
- Forecast bias improved. (F23 – 30%, F24 – 8%)

Navigating the dynamic challenges of supply and demand in today’s business landscape is no small feat. Under the leadership of Jenny Patzlaff, our virtual Sales & Operations Planning (S&OP) Special Interest Group convened on June 11th to explore insights and strategies for optimizing inventory management.

Welcome new members Accuray, Findorff, and OMRON

Join us in celebrating and welcoming these three new member companies to our UWEBC community: Accuray, Findorff, and OMRON. You can learn a little about each of them below.

Accuray is a pioneer in the field of medical technology, dedicated to enhancing cancer treatment through their innovative radiation therapy solutions. Their flagship products, the CyberKnife® and Radixact® Systems, provide precise and effective treatment options that minimize radiation dose to healthy tissue, helping to reduce the risk of side effects that may impact patients' daily lives. With Accuray on board, we're excited to advance our mission of driving excellence and innovation.

Established in the heart of Madison, Wisconsin, in 1890, Findorff has been making a meaningful impact as a commercial construction manager across various industries, including healthcare, education, science & technology, corporate, government, residential, and manufacturing. Findorff is dedicated to building and beyond for clients, partners, and the greater community.

OMRON supports businesses in the healthcare, technology, and automation industries. In supporting its customers, OMRON continues to act on important social issues within each of its business domains. Its unwavering efforts foster growth, innovation, and community and continue to propel forward-thinking initiatives that are bound to positively impact the world.

Make sure to welcome any employees from these companies that you see at your next UWEBC event!
